

ATTACKED BY 6 MEN.

Brutes Fiendishly Maltreat Intoxicated Lizzie Leonard.

Thrown Into a Basement and Her Clothing Torn Off.

Rescued by a Plucky Policeman, Who Made One Arrest.

A gang of six toughs surrounded Lizzie Leonard, a young woman twenty-five years of age, living at 61 Macdonald street, about 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The woman was intoxicated.

Three of the gang picked her up and threw her feet first down a flight of stone steps into the basement of the tenement-house at 171 Bleeker street.

Three of the gang remained on the street while the other three attempted to assault the woman. She was uninjured by the fall, and fought her assailants like a tigress.

In the mean time two colored men, who had seen the woman thrown into the basement, rushed for a policeman. They found Policeman George H. Zimmerman on the corner of South Fifth avenue.

Zimmerman went back with the colored men and the three men who were on guard in the street ran away. The policeman jumped down into the basement, and the three toughs then attacked him. The officer singled out John Reilly, of Summit avenue, Jersey City, and hit him with his billy.

The stick split in two pieces. Reilly and the policeman had a hand-to-hand struggle. The latter finally overpowered the tough.

Zimmerman then turned his attention to the woman. She was lying on her back almost naked. The toughs had torn nearly every bit of her clothing off from her.

Zimmerman helped the woman to dress and then took her to the station-house with his prisoner.

She told her story in the Jefferson Market Court this morning, and the policeman corroborated her. But for a tremendous black eye she would have been prepossessing in appearance. Reilly was arraigned before Justice Ryan and remanded.

ABDUCTOR FOUND GUILTY.

Convicted of a Crime Committed Seventeen Years Ago.

GALESBURG, Ill., March 2.—The second trial of James Butts for the abduction of Eliza Cherrington closed in the Circuit Court here last night, and the verdict sends Butts to jail for ten years. The Butts and Cherrington families were among the most influential families of Eastern Knox County, and were near neighbors. Seventeen years ago Butts, who was then twenty-six years old, started to church with Eliza Cherrington, aged twelve. They disappeared. No word has ever been heard from the girl and Butts became a fugitive.

The opinion prevails that he killed her. Last November Butts was arrested, tried for abduction and seduction, found guilty and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. His lawyers secured a new trial. This has occupied a week, and the court-room has been jammed to the door at every session. Butts' friends tried to break down the character of the girl. This aroused wild indignation.

The girl's mother said on the stand: "If that jury don't convict Butts, I will shoot him dead in the court-room."

KILLED HER FALSE LOVER.

Memphis Woman Wounded in a Street Brawl With Pistol.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 2.—Have you seen my place? I think I dropped it," said Mrs. Bettie Wrench, a recently divorced woman, as she stopped in front of a saloon door on Main street last night. Before the man she addressed could reply she whipped out a racy six-shooter and shot him through the thigh. The man sprang to his feet, and as he did so another bullet was sent through his stomach, bringing him to the earth. In his recumbent position he shot the woman through the hip and arm, and fell within a few feet of him. In this position both parties lay for some time. The woman's pistol was empty. The man is seriously wounded and the woman is in a hospital.

Wrench, a cashier from West Virginia, is dead. He had abducted Mrs. Wrench's affections from her husband and then deserted her.

SHOT THREE NEIGHBORS.

Then Albert Moss Returned Home and Killed Himself.

EUGENE, Ore., March 2.—Albert Moss and his father quarreled last night, and David Coleman, a farmer living nearby, took sides with the elder Moss. Young Moss, a married daughter of Coleman, shooting her twice and killing her instantly. He then shot another daughter through the arm, and finally attacked Coleman, whom he shot through the abdomen and fatally injured. Moss then went home and blew out his own brains.

DEUSTROW SEEKS DEATH.

St. Louis Murderer Makes Another Attempt at Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 2.—Dr. Arthur Deustrow, the millionaire murderer, who tried to commit suicide Wednesday night, made another attempt last night at midnight.

This time he used his suspenders for a rope and was just in the act of kicking over the chair on which he stood when a guard rushed in and released him.

Tragedy at a Dance.

BARRETT, N. Y., March 2.—While a dance was in progress in Madison County, George Hendley told his wife it was time for her to go home.

W. B. Hendley, Jr., told her to stay as long as she liked. Both took hold of her. Hendley shot Hendley three times and then fell dead. Hendley fell to the floor and is supposed to have also died.

Pitcher McNabb Victim Dead.

PITTSBURGH, March 2.—Mrs. Louise Beckwith, the actress shot by Pitcher McNabb Wednesday night at the Hotel Elford, died at 4:40 o'clock this morning. Her husband was married yesterday and left California for this city at once. McNabb's body was shipped to his old home at Mount Vernon, N. Y., last evening. His funeral will take place today.

Fondly How Ends in Murder.

CANTON, Mass., March 2.—Charles Brown shot and killed J. W. McIntire Wednesday evening. McIntire was shooting at his son and then at his wife, who was Brown's sister, and when Brown went in his sister's room he was fired at by McIntire, which then killed his assailant.

Mississippi Minister Murdered.

MOBILE, Ala., March 2.—The Rev. Stephen Wells, a Baptist minister, was shot and killed yesterday by William Quince, who cut the former's head open with an axe.

CRUSADE AROUND THE WORLD.

Temperance Petition to Be Presented to Every Government.

Steamer Chartered for 100 Women's Christian Union Pilgrims.

The World's Women's Christian Temperance Union has prepared a monster petition against the traffic in alcohol, opium and legalized vice. It has taken seven years to prepare the petition, and it bears over two million signatures.

Lady Henry Somerset and Miss Willard have been deputed to present the petition to every government in the world. A party of 100 will accompany the remarkable petition in its voyage around the world. A first-class steamer is to be chartered, and William Pipe, the chairman's secretary of the World's Parliament of Religions, will act as managing secretary to the expedition.

The crusade will commence at the annual Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, to be held in the United States next October. The American delegation will then proceed to Washington, where the petition will be presented to the Government.

Leaving New York on Oct. 24, the American delegation will sail for the British continent. In the great demonstration at Exeter Hall on Nov. 1 or 2, the petition will be presented to the British Government.

A visit will then be paid to Rome, where it is hoped that His Holiness, the Pope, and the King of Italy will receive the delegation. The next capital to be visited will be Athens, where the King of Greece will be presented with the petition. Jerusalem will be the next point reached, and the petition is to be presented to the Patriarch of Jerusalem, after which the Khelevis will be visited at Cairo.

It is intended to reach India in time for the National Congress, and a six weeks' tour will be made through that Empire in a special train. Great mass meetings will be held in all the principal cities. From Calcutta the steamer will proceed to Ceylon, and thence to Siam, with the object of presenting the petition to the King of that country. Each Australian colony will then select a delegation, after which the course of the pilgrimage will be directed northward to China, where it is hoped that the Viceroy will receive the delegation.

Japan will also be visited, and the petition will be presented to the Mikado. After this the eastward circuit of the world will be completed by a journey across the Pacific. It is intended at a later date to present the petition to the northern and central governments of Europe.

TOOK THE INFANT TO COURT.

Mrs. Giuseppe Held It for a Woman Who Didn't Return.

A ten-day-old female foundling was turned over to the Jerry Society in the Hudson Police Court this morning by Justice Wells.

The waif was taken into court by Mrs. Antonio Giuseppe, of 44 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street. She said that last Tuesday evening a young, well-dressed American woman asked her to hold the baby while she went on an errand. The woman did not return, and is unknown in the neighborhood.

Women Mob an Ex-Priest and Wife.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., March 2.—After a lecture to women only by the wife of Ex-Priest Rottner, a crowd of women gathered at the foot of the stairs leading to the hall, and when she and her husband appeared they were greeted with abuse, stones and boiling water. The women surrounded the couple and police were called to escort the lecture home.

YOUNG AMERICANS CAUGHT.

Ten Boys Answer for Being in an Alleged Disorderly House.

Justice Taintor Discharges Them and Holds the Proprietor.

Ten boys, ranging in age from fourteen to seventeen years, were prisoners in the Tombs Court this morning, along with eighteen men, a young woman named Liza Anne and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reister, proprietors of an alleged disorderly house at 86 Greenwich street. Reister was held in $200 bail for trial and others were discharged.

There were tears in the eyes of some of the young Americans, others affected an air of bravado, but all were apparently in ill at ease as they received a lecture from Justice Taintor.

Detectives Devery, Sheridan and Connor, who conducted the raid last night, said the boys were drinking and playing pool when caught. They made a wild effort to escape, but all were corralled and the majority were obliged to spend the night in jail.

The complaint against the house was made by Corbille Gohla, a prepossessing German girl, who arrived in America four weeks ago, and had been stopping at the Lee House, an institution run by the Catholic Church in State street. Ten days ago the girl said while passing through Greenwich street, a man named Mike induced her to go to his room at 86 Greenwich street. She would not go, but he followed her, and she would not let him go. There, she asserts, she was courted by a West-ender, who bought wine by the case from the house and spent $500 or $600 in entertaining all the inmates.

She would not let him go, and he finally went away. She made grave charges against Reister and the man Mike.

Reister testified that he keeps an emigrant boarding-house, and that the German girl had been boarding with him. The police say they have received many complaints that young boys and girls frequent the house.

LECTURED AND DISCHARGED.

Four Boycotters Arrested on Seamen-Keener Lynch's Complaint.

Four members of the United Brewers' Association, named respectively Dennis Kerwick, twenty-five years old, of 26 East Twenty-eighth street, Dominick Dwyer, twenty-two, 336 East Twenty-eighth street, Patrick Stone, twenty-seven, of 33 East Thirtieth street, and Patrick Kennedy, aged twenty-two, of the same address, were prisoners at the Yorkville Police Court this morning, charged with disorderly conduct.

The complaint was made by John Lynch, who keeps a saloon at a twenty-fourth street and Second avenue, who said that the men have been boycotting him for the past two nights.

According to Lynch they went into his saloon on Wednesday and demanded that he stop buying or selling an ale that was being boycotted.

When he declined to obey them and ordered them out of the place, he said they jerked about his saloon and interfered with his business, by accusing customers and preventing them from entering the saloon.

Lynch sought the protection of the police, and the four boycotters disappeared. They came back last night and distributed circulars in the neighborhood, calling upon the public to refrain from buying the boycotted ale.

Lynch sought the arrest of the four men. They were taken to the East Twenty-second street police station, and after their arrival the Princess and Prince were released on bail to appear in court this morning. Justice Voorhis discharged them with a severe lecture.

FIVE YOUNG BOYS ESCAPE.

Flee from House of Refuge on Randall's Island in a Boat.

One of Them Captured and Returned to the Island.

Policeman Flattery, of the East One Hundred and Forty-sixth street station, saw a boy walking stably along Second avenue and one Hundred and First street at 1 o'clock this morning. When the policeman got close to the boy he saw that he was a House of Refuge boy. As soon as the boy saw the officer he started to run away. After a short chase the boy was caught, and passed to the Walter White, fourteen years old, who with four companions had escaped from the House of Refuge on Randall's Island.

White told the officer that Peter Mead, fifteen years old, of Brooklyn, Carson Gibson, fourteen years old, of 64 West Forty-ninth street, John La Rue, sixteen years old, of 346 St. Nicholas avenue, and William Hughes, sixteen years old, of Monroe street, were his companions in the escape.

He said that he and the other boys planned an escape a few days ago. Last night they stuffed paper into the locks of their rooms, so that when the keys were turned the doors would not close.

At 1 o'clock this morning, in the absence of the keepers, the boys picked the locks and left the building. They went straight to the river, boomed the large rowboat belonging to the place, and rowed across to One Hundred and Ninety-ninth street.

Then the boys separated. White would not tell where the other boys had gone. White's parents live in Schenectady, N. Y. He was committed from Albany for stealing and had been on the island for three years. Mead and Gibson had also served three years each.

The escape of the boys was not discovered till 4 o'clock this morning. Capt. Starbuck, of the East one Hundred and Fourth street station, told them of their arrest. White was turned over to the police, who took him back to the island.

A DETECTIVE IN HER SUITE.

Princess Colonna Has Her Children Well Guarded from the Prince.

MONTEPELLO, Cal., March 2.—Princess Colonna and her children and suite, under the guardianship of John W. Mackay, jr., have arrived here in a private car. A suit of six rooms in the Hotel Belmont awaited them, and an hour after their arrival the Princess and her friend, Miss Simpson, together with Mr. Mackay and Philip B. Clark, of St. Louis, took dinner in the main dining hall.

In the suite are four servants and a well-built individual, who is said to be one of the most accomplished secret service gentlemen in the country. It is his business to keep an ever-watchful eye on the three children, lest they be spirited away by tacticians of Italy, employed by Prince Colonna.

Mr. Mackay says that he will remain with his sister constantly until the danger has passed.

"I came to California," said the Princess, "for complete rest after the worries and anxieties of the past few months. I shall make the Belmont my home for the present, visiting my old friends in San Francisco occasionally."

LIVELY CHASE ON HORSEBACK.

John F. McGuire Caught While Running from Two Women.

Said He Was Flirting, but They Accused Him of Theft.

John F. McGuire, a plumber, of 433 West Fifty-sixth street, was a prisoner in the Yorkville Police Court this morning, charged with snatching a pocket-book from Mrs. Emily Zaunages, of 425 West Twenty-sixth street.

Mrs. Zaunages and her cousin, Emily Riehlburg, were walking along Tenth avenue yesterday afternoon, when two men accosted them. One of the men snatched the pocketbook, containing $3, from Mrs. Zaunages. She screamed, and the men ran in different directions.

Mounted Park Policeman Coyle, who was about two blocks away, was attracted by the screams and saw the men running. He immediately started in pursuit after McGuire, and captured him after a chase on horseback of three blocks.

In court this morning the prisoner denied the theft, but said that he and a friend were flirting with some girls on the avenue, and he frightened one of them, who began to scream.

He said he then ran away from the girls, but did not know he was being chased. He was held in $300 bail for further examination.

MESSEMER'S DEATH.

His Brother Has Received No Further News from Mentone.

Dr. Edward J. Messemmer, of 141 Second avenue, brother to ex-Coroner Michael J. B. Messemmer, who died in a village near Mentone, France, on Feb. 21, declined this morning to see reporters.

A woman domestic gave reporters a statement, written in pencil, giving an account of the ex-Coroner's public career.

When asked whether Dr. Messemmer had received any further particulars from Mentone regarding his brother's death the servant replied in the negative.

REFUSED TO PAY HIS BILL.

Robert Winters Now Under Arrest, Charged with Assault.

Robert Winters, a book agent, fifty-three years old, of 73 Bowers, was held for trial on a charge of assault in Essex Market Police Court to-day.

Last night Winters entered the lunch room at 5 Third avenue and, after eating 50 cents' worth of food, refused to pay for it.

He assaulted Cashier George Eisenhart, who tried to keep him from leaving the place before a policeman could be called. Winters claims self defense.

Fight for a Scroll.

Lawyer Alfred B. Jaworsky, of the Pulver Building, has been retained by Frank Tannenbaum, of 11 Norfolk street, to defend the action brought against him by the Abnath Sholem Association.

The lodge owned a scroll which was taken by Tannenbaum. Three weeks ago there was a dispute, and some of the members resigned and formed a new lodge. Tannenbaum refused to give up the scroll to the new organization, hence the suit.

Roach Appoints a Janitor.

Civil Justice Roach, of the Fourth District Court, has appointed Nicholas Eberhard as janitor of the court building.

REBEL OCHOA HEARD FROM.

He Writes a Letter to an Albuquerque Newspaper.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 2.—La Opinion Publica, a Spanish journal, published yesterday the following letter from Victor Ochoa, the Mexican insurgent leader who was reported killed or wounded in the last fight with Mexican troops:

The Editor of the Paper: After having robbed myself with a little brush with the Pelones, to which I killed forty-three of my men, I ordered a retreat, and they hid themselves. When you see this I will be where I am going to buy arms and ammunition, with a view of doing some more for the friends of the press, who are defending our just cause, and do not become faint-hearted in the middle of your noble undertaking. I am neither dead, wounded and much less frightened. To win we must use tricks, but I have the hope the day will come when our cause will triumph. You almost kill me. I myself am astonished at the resources and means the Revolutionary Committee have, and for that reason we will not spare any time or any means to combat the usurpers of the rights of the people.

Ochoa is somewhere in the United States, buying arms.

CHARLES D. SHEPARD DYING.

He Was the Owner of the Famous "White Elephant."

Charles D. Shepard, widely known in this city, particularly in sporting circles, as the proprietor of the "White Elephant," that formerly stood at Thirty-first street and Broadway, is dangerously ill at his apartments in West Twenty-sixth street, near Fifth avenue. He has congestion of the brain. Dr. Walter M. Fleming and Dr. Arthur Townsend, say that his death is only a matter of a few hours.

Mr. Shepard has been confined to his bed for four weeks, and has been unconscious for several days.

Mr. Shepard and his wife had lived apart for years, but since he became seriously ill, she has been constantly at his bedside.

Mr. Shepard was a few years ago believed to be worth $400,000, but recently he lost a great deal of money. Much of his property is in real estate in this city and Larchmont.

He backed several theatrical enterprises, and his Minnie Madden on the stage. Miss Madden is a relative of Mr. Shepard.

STEELE MACKAY'S FUNERAL.

All Souls Church Crowded with the Late Actor's Friends.

Funeral services over the body of Steele Mackay, the playwright, were held this morning in All-Souls' Church, Twentieth street and Fourth avenue.

The church was crowded with friends of the late actor. Most of them were from the theatrical and literary world. The body reposed in a black broadcloth coffin, which had heavy oxidized handles.

Henry Irving sent a wreath of white immortelles, with a spray of calla lilies, was sent by Mrs. Gustavus S. Winston. On the card in this inscription: "Good night, sweet prince."

Another floral offering was a large bunch of hyacinths, with purple streamers, from Mrs. A. Wallace Craigie and other friends. The card attached bore the words: "Silence and eternal song."

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Williams.

SENATOR SULLIVAN BETTER.

Rested Well Last Night, and is in an Improved Condition.

ALBANY, March 2.—Senator Sullivan had a good night's rest last night, and is in an improved condition.

ROSENHEIM ACCUSED.

Said to Have Tried to Get a Boy to Commit Perjury.

False Story About the Cohen-Wallenstein Fire.

He is a Brother-in-Law of One of the Firm.

Detective Kehoe, of the East Fifth street station, took an undersized, well-dressed man, about forty years of age, named Wolf Rosenheim, to the District Attorney's office to-day. Rosenheim was arrested late last night on a bench warrant charging him with subornation of perjury.

Rosenheim is a brother-in-law of Mr. Wallenstein, of the firm of Cohen & Wallenstein, of 85 Reade street, who was recently indicted for arson. A fire broke out in their place on the night of Feb. 5 last, and Fire Marshal Mitchell's investigation led to the arrest of Rosenheim.

Meyer Wolosky, fifteen years old, of 100 Norfolk street, who was in the employ of Cohen & Wallenstein, alleges that Rosenheim told him to say that he was the last person to leave the shop on the night of the fire, and that it was his (Wolosky's) duty to take the books of the firm to Mr. Cohen's house, at 142 Madison street.

He was also told to say that, as he was about to lock up, he saw a fire burning in the place, and became so excited that he ran out and left the books behind.

He was further instructed to state that he was only a little boy and didn't know everything. Wolosky, in his affidavit, says that it took him from 9:30 to 10:45 o'clock on the night of Feb. 5 to learn his story thoroughly, and during that time Rosenheim was with him.

Raphael Adelstein, twenty-two years old, of 140 Madison street, alleges that on the night of Feb. 5, Rosenheim and a man named S. Cohen called at his house and asked where Wolosky lived. He took them there and overheard the conversation between them.

Rosenheim when arraigned before Judge McClellan pleaded not guilty. He was committed to the Tombs in default of bail.

NEW SLAVESHIP HORRORS.

Smugglers Accused of Throwing Weighted Coolies Overboard.

TACOMA, Wash., March 2.—It is claimed that smugglers have been actively at work for some time, and that they have imported thousands of dollars' worth of opium and landed hundreds of coolies within the past sixty days. A local paper publishes a statement that the smugglers, when hard pressed by customs officers, have thrown their living cargo into the Sound, putting chains and nails on the coolies' legs to insure the bodies going to the bottom.

The customs officers are reticent about divulging any news pertaining to such ureas they make, as a new ruling of the Treasury Department forbids them doing so.

Reorganization Plan Accepted.

LOUISVILLE, March 2.—A telegram received here by the Columbia Finance and Trust Company announced that Drexel, Morgan & Co., of New York, had accepted the Louisville Southern reorganization plan. This means that the interest on $5,500,000 worth of bonds, amounting to $67,500, will be paid. Most of these bonds are held in Louisville.

THE SUNDAY WORLD

FEATURES OF LIFE AT OLD YALE.

A Thoughtful Study of Student Life, College Customs, Traditions and Influences at the Big New Haven University.

A WEEK IN TROUSEREETTES.

One of THE SUNDAY WORLD'S Young Women Tells How It Feels to Wear the New Dress Reform Costume.

HUMOR AND COLORED CARICATURES.

TO PRESERVE LOVE.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox Writes of the Acids and Sweets of Married Life and Gives Some Advice to Husbands.

CHAMPION CORBETT

He Writes of His Famous Half-Arm Blow and Gives Some Points on Training and on Winning Fights.

OF RACE TRACK FRAUDS!

Jockeys Armed with Electric Whips and Seated on Saddles Loaded with Electric Batteries.

The Inventor and Maker of These Remarkable Machines Gives an Explanation of Certain Races and How They Were Won.